Secretary's office.

Admiral Richard L. Conolly, at present Commandant of the Naval War College, came in to talk to me about the possibility of [redacted] assignment for him at home or abroad.

Attended a luncheon Ambassador Bonnet gave in honor of Paul Reynaud.

Jack McFall came in for his regular meeting.

Howard Warner, Department Commander of the 29th Division Association, called me from Baltimore to ask if I would address their State Convention on June 14. I declined.

Had a final briefing on IIA policy, field operations, and management by Dr. Compton, Reed Harris, Brad Connors, Arthur Kimball, and William Johnstone.

Long talk with Jean Monnet, after he had seen the Secretary.

Bob Joyce telephoned to say he was definitely going to attend the meeting at Princeton which C. D. Jackson wrote me about, and that Bohlen would probably stop by on Saturday on his way back from New York.

E. and I had dinner with the Ed Foleys, [redacted] then attended a performance of "Call Me Madam".
